

TRADEMARKS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

PUBLICATION, THOMSON REUTERS - DONNA A. TOBIN, 2020

From Thomson Reuters: Trademarks Throughout the World is a classic work that provides practical summaries of the trademark laws and regulations of more than 200 countries and jurisdictions worldwide. Authored by trademark practitioners in the particular nations covered, and other global trademark experts, this work addresses such issues as:

- Color mark eligibility for registration in particular countries
- Optional and required trademark markings
- Filing an opposition against an application to register a trademark in a particular jurisdiction
- Whether trademarks can be assigned and licensed
- Available enforcement mechanisms
- Maintaining a registration's validity
- Protections for domain names
- Trademark rights
- Applicable fees
- The cancellation of a trademark registration
- Updated three times per year
